Dear Sir or Madam:

Please accept this correspondence as The Ouachita Citizen's bid to serve as the Official Journal of the Ouachita Parish Police Jury for the year beginning July 1, 2010, and ending June 30, 2011.

The Ouachita Citizen is prepared to publish the public notices your office is required to publish at a cost of $5.00 per each, two-column by one-inch square, which represents a cost of $2.50 per column inch, or about $1.25 per each 100 words.

The Ouachita Citizen's bid does not exceed the statutory maximum set by Louisiana Revised Statute 43:147. The Ouachita Citizen meets the qualifications set by Louisiana Revised Statute 43:142.

It should be noted The Ouachita Citizen's bid to serve as the Official Journal for the Ouachita Parish Police Jury is less than the maximum amount allowed under Louisiana law. It also should be noted The Ouachita Citizen publishes the public notices of the governing bodies it serves as the Official Journal on the newspaper's web site at www.ouachitacitizen.com and at www.publicnoticeads.com. We publish those public notices online at no charge to the governing bodies.

As a family owned and locally owned newspaper which has been serving the people of Ouachita Parish since 1924, we take very seriously being named the Official Journal of the various governing bodies that have chosen The Ouachita Citizen as its Official Journal. Having said that, it is our hope the Ouachita Parish Police Jury will choose The Ouachita Citizen as its Official Journal once again.

In closing, I want to thank you in advance for your time and your consideration, and please know that we look forward to serving you in the future.

Yours truly,

Sam A. Hanna, Jr.
